

SEMINAR PRESENTERS

Bailey, Sherry has served in the Philippines and speaks from 25 years of church and international ministry experience. She is the Director of Dalit Freedom Network Canada, a ministry focused on reaching India's Dalit children.

Brulotte, Jayne and husband, Gerald, have spent the last 9 years ministering in Tunisia, North Africa. They are involved in leadership training and pastoring the English church in the capital.

Edward, Christy is Children's Coordinator for Wycliffe Canada. Her role is to help equip and empower children's leaders across the country to ensure that they have a tool belt of information to lead their kids in learning about missions and Bible translation.

Ens, Marie served as a missionary with the Christian & Missionary Alliance (C&MA) from 1961-2000. During that time she ministered with her husband in Cambodia, Thailand, Canada & in France among Cambodian refugees. Since retiring from the C&MA, she has been involved in holistic ministry, especially with Place of Rescue, which is an AIDS Centre & orphanage in Cambodia.

Fargher, Brian is on the staff of Power to Change, with local outreach through Urban Missionaries' Association of Canada. He has had many years of experience in one-to-one conversations with those who want to meet Jesus. He has a passion for introducing seekers to the Savior.

Fox, Grace is an author, international speaker, and national co-director of International Messengers of Canada. One of her roles in this ministry is to train short-term missionary volunteers.

Frisk, Marty ministered in Muslim Turkey as a church planting tentmaker. He is the Director of Christar (Canada), which plants churches among least-reached people.

Gilbey, Gordon is Executive Director of Missionfest Manitoba. Gordon retired from the City of Winnipeg in 2002 so that he and his wife Elaine could dedicate themselves to God's missional call. His personal statement is, "To do anything I can to help you to be a success at your God-given mission."

Gillespie, Scott has been involved in full-time ministry for over 25 years. Following time spent with the Shantymen, he became part of Action International Ministries (ACTION), ministering in Cuba and Mexico. Scott is presently the Director of Promotion and Recruitment for ACTION.

Gordon and his wife, Rita, have 27 years of experience in ministry, with more than half of it spent in church planting and leadership development overseas. Gordon founded the Centre for Muslim Outreach and also serves as a Partnership Facilitator with the Canadian Sending Base of Frontiers. He has ministered in more than 25 nations in Africa, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

Hart, Barry is a retired high school teacher. In 2002 God led him and his wife, Heather, to witness first hand the desperate water needs in the world. They founded the Canadian branch of Living Water International. Over 150 Canadians have participated in 50 projects. Water Ambassadors Canada is a continuation of this work.

Heuertz, Chris, see page 6.

Janke, Marlowe is a businessman and also serves as National Director of MFMI Canada--a short-term mission organization and the lay arm of OMS International. He is a leader of local Discovery Groups and organizes short-term missions teams to various countries of the world.

Law, Terry, see page 6.

Maharaj, Mohan, see page 6.

McGuirl, Rev. Allan has been serving God as a pastor and missions agency director for over 30 years. He has travelled around the world, supplying missionaries with radio equipment to reach the unreached, helping the church to fulfill the great commission.

Musselman, Greg is the Chief Communications Officer for the Voice of the Martyrs Canada. Greg gathers reports for television, radio and print media around the world where Christians suffer. His reports have included stories from Africa, Asia, Europe and the Middle East.

Nation, Len currently serves as the Mobilization Director for TEAM of Canada. Len is a passionate, Bible-focused communicator and teacher, who effectively connects with a wide age-range of audiences.

Pickel, Don has served as a missionary and also as Canadian Director of Church & Campus Ministries for Gospel Missionary Union (AVANT). He is a member of the "Perspectives on the World Christian Movement" committee and also works with "DualReach" (see dualreach.org) to help churches discover how they can best make an impact on the world globally and locally.

Piercey, Bruce left a career in law to pursue missions in a tent-making ministry in China and later as "business-as-mission" in SE Asia. Since 2005 he has managed emergency response and community development projects across the Eurasian continent for Samaritan's Purse Canada.

Pollon, Marg birthed Bridges of Love Ministry five years ago. Pandemic/Emergency Preparedness is an open door for the church to be 'salt' and 'light' in the community. She was responsible for the integration of the Christian Community into the Calgary Emergency Management Framework and is building a template in Alberta, which is being shared across our nation.

Rice, Bill is the Executive Director of Edmonton Youth for Christ. He's been working with youth for 15 years, especially those kids who are difficult. He loves using music to relate to youth and has played with bands, putting on many shows with youth.

Sada, General Georges, see page 6.

Schlitt, M. was born into a missionary family, grew up in India and has served in the Philippines for 29 years with her husband. She is currently the Director of Member Development of OMF International.

Schlitt, R. has served in the Philippines since 1980 in Church planting and leadership roles. As the Director of Evangelization designate, starting in June 2010, he will be transitioning into a broad leadership role for OMF in East Asia.

Thomas, Sam has served with AIM in Central Africa Republic and D.R. Congo. Fluent in French and Pazande languages, Sam has been involved in equipping new missionaries and African leaders in this part of the African Continent for years.