His antisocial ideologies, his delinquency and his violent behaviour brought him to the forefront of organized crime. His life as a "gangster", which today seems to attract so many young people, resulted in nine years of incarceration at various institutions. "We are a product of our choices," declares Asmick wherever he speaks. His life choices made him a hardened, active, well-known, dangerous, and violent criminal. His poor choices led him to foster homes, prison in isolation, the hospital and very close to death. But one day, Asmick made another choice. This choice changed his life completely and beat all statistics. There was ONE choice that changed everything— a living relationship with the person of Jesus Christ.

He became a Christian out of this completely non-Christian background while trying to prove the Bible false during his time in college. Ever since, his passion has been reaching the "lostest of the lost," prompting him to give up a career in law to become a pastor. He was the founding Pastor of Forefront Church in Virginia Beach, VA; a church where 72% of the people who attend were previously unchurched unbelievers. In his eleven years of ministry there, the church saw about 1,000 people make first-time decisions for Christ and be baptized. In those years, Forefront planted seven churches and adopted an unreached people group in southeast Asia. In 2010, Vince moved to Las Vegas where he started a new church, Verve, in the heart of the city, just off the Vegas strip. In addition, Vince is also part of a nonprofit that is doing humanitarian aid work in remote villages in Vietnam and is part of starting a new nonprofit that will be doing community service to meet needs on and around the Vegas strip. He is also involved in a stand-up comedy show in Las Vegas.
