PRESENTERS

We believe that missions education should begin early. We know of many global workers, pastors and leaders who received their call from the Lord when they were very young. Attitudes and insights can develop into a vision.

Thank You to our 2018 Presenters: Maralee Dawn - Children's Speaker (Fri., Sat. Evening, Sun. Aft. & Evening); Exhibitors: Leigh Labrecque - Canada Institute of Linguistics (Sat AM); MJ Grant - CBS4Kids (Sun. Aft.); Alastair & Shelley Wyatt - Galcom International (Sat Aft.); Dawn Magee - Rising Oak Ministries (Sat. AM); Amanda Christopher - The House Ministries (Ages 3-5); and other individuals.

Maralee Dawn Ventriloquist is best known for her award-winning children's television series Maralee Dawn & Friends (MD&F) produced in Canada and broadcast on every continent.

MD&F is a refreshing Bible-based children's series. If ever the children of Canada need to hear The Good News as presented by MD&F... it is today.

Maralee Dawn, was born in Calgary, AB and at age 14 had her first TV debut in Edmonton, on Popcorn Play House and Kiddies on Camera. God deposited his love in her heart through a bus ministry outreach. David and Norma Jean Maines cheered her on and God used them to catapult her ministry world wide. . . beyond Maralee's wildest dreams.

The art of ventriloquism has captured the attention of this generation because of a young 12-year-old ventriloquist, Darcy Lynn, who has dominated the airwaves. Darcy's interest in ventriloquism was ignited in a gospel setting.

Maralee is passionate about introducing children to the life-changing power of the gospel and seeing them empowered by the Holy Spirit—equipped to contend and triumph in every adversity.

Maralee is committed to mentoring others and will model the best practices.
