Please Note: Room C215
is upstairs and is only accessible by stairs.

FRIDAY - 2:30 P.M.

How to Respond to Persecution

Greg Musselman; 104, Conference Centre

A question often asked is how Christians should respond to persecution. Biblically, there seems to be three basic responses that the Lord allows when His people are persecuted. We'll explore those responses and hear stories of believers who decided to stay in some very dangerous places to advance the Kingdom of God.

Nurturing Great Kids: Impacting 5 Key Spheres of a Child's Life

Gordon West; C105

Five key spheres of a child's life shape and mold them. Discover transforming ways to nurture spiritual growth for whole children: in heart, soul, mind, strength, and relationships.

Broken for the Broken

Keith & Maya Durkin; C215

After ministering and church planting in Mexico for 20 years the Durkins experienced ministry "burn out" with Keith going through clinical depression and Maya having breast cancer. Their brokenness became the pathway to minister to Tijuana's most broken, bringing beauty for ashes.

FRIDAY - 4:00 P.M.

God Still Gives Dreams and Visions

Nizar Shaheen; 104, Conference Centre

Why people in the Middle East and North Africa are seeing Visions.

Under-tapped Resource: Leveraging the Global South to Reach the Lost

Rick & Jeaneth Maxwell; C105

Was Solomon right when he said, "Two are better than one?" How are we doing at Global collaboration between agencies, races and nations? How does the Global South represent a strong investment for serious kingdom-builders? Focusing on Latins, this workshop will highlight some of the positive trends and suggest action steps.

Every 30 Seconds!

David Keith; C215

Many of us think slavery ended with the work of William Wilberforce. Though we have seen an end to the era of men, women and children working on cotton plantations, slavery is still alive and well in the world today! What does it look like today? And how can we make a difference?

SATURDAY - 11:00 A.M.

Scripture and Science – A Biblical World View: Part 1

Scott Kennedy; Auditorium

This seminar will give you an introduction to apologetics with an emphasis on how the natural world and scientific knowledge gives evidence for a Creator. It will describe what apologetics is and what its purpose is in the Christian faith, explaining its importance in strengthening believers in their faith and equipping them in being witnesses for Christ, in evangelism and missions, and in ministry in general.

This session will address why a full biblical world view is vitally important today and will explain the three main worldviews relating to the origins of the universe and life. Throughout, it will be emphasized and illustrated that the best science increasingly confirms Scripture.

Mind Of A Muslim

Perry Zelman; 104 Conference Centre

How do most Muslims view our western culture? What are some barriers Muslims face in even considering Christianity? How can we practically present the gospel?

How Can Women Get a Vision?

Sherry Block, Marion Jean Grant & Ellen Shaheen; C105

What is a vision? What is a vision for missions? Learn how to carry out that vision in a practical way - in our family, community and church.

Men in the Mission Field

Marlowe Janke & Howard Pike; C215

Join us in discovering some of the great things God is doing with men in the mission field. Let's explore a man's journey as he steps out in faith to follow God's Calling. Let's see how a church can effectively prepare each generation to serve locally and around the globe.

SATURDAY - 1:30 P.M.

Cross-bearing Christians, Then and Now

Greg Musselman; Auditorium

Cross-bearing is held up as being indicative of the level of life-commitment that will be necessary to be a follower of Jesus in the first century and the 21st century. Every first century person knew what a cross was, but do we? Unfortunately in our culture the "cross" has been trivialized into meaning pretty much anything that is unpleasant. But that is not what Jesus taught. Explore what it means to take up our cross in this seminar.

Winds of Change

Wilfried Schulte; C105

This seminar gives insight into the spiritual situation in German speaking Europe - showing ways to present the gospel in a changing social and cultural environment.

The Best (and Worst!) ESL Volunteers

Rick and Patti Love; C215

Success and failure in developing a pathway to Jesus for immigrants.

SATURDAY - 4:15 P.M.

Ten Things Every Muslim Should Know about Christianity

Nizar Shaheen; Auditorium

How can knowing this help us to witness?

The Whole Church

Tony Webbink; 104 Conference Centre

Encourage youth to recognize that their presence & gifts are vital to the health of Christ's body on earth, including to those who don't yet believe.

7 Attitudes of Effective Short-Termers

Grace Fox; C105

Do you want to be the short-termer everyone wants on their team? Discover 7 attitudes that will make you both effective and valued.

Refugees Need the Gospel Too

Scott Gillespie; C215

How to serve the needs of refugees at home and abroad with love, through Word and deed, to the glory of God.

SUNDAY - 3:30 P.M.

Scripture and Science – A Biblical World View: Part 2

Scott Kennedy; 104, Conference Centre

Following from Part 1 (on Saturday at 11:00 a.m.), this seminar will highlight examples of how the best science confirms Scripture. It will underscore the importance of taking the book of Genesis at face value, will examine the question of whether or not the Christian faith and the theory of evolution are compatible, and will give examples of the testimony of leading scientists who are committed Christian believers.

Top Ten Reasons to Send Workers to the Hardest Places

Aaron Edwards; C105

Most people see a hurting world but are unsure how to respond. The needs feel overwhelming and the risks seem too great. But Jesus is leading His followers TODAY to effectively step into dark places with courageous love! The presenter's family has lived in restricted access nations and experienced the dangers and joys of being sent out to the least-reached. This seminar will highlight the world's remaining unengaged people groups, and the sending ministry of God to the least and the lost. Come hear a compelling challenge to keep sending workers to difficult places.

Befriending and Understanding Sikhs

Arthur and Friends; C215

Sikhs are a distinct/religious cultural group. Their large communities in Alberta continue to grow. The seminar will help a person understand Sikh people, how to befriend them and how to help them understand the gospel of grace.
